FIRST MAN TO THE MOON

Happy Hooligan and Gloomy Gus are sleeping on the park bench when an old man comes along and tells Happy he wants a good man to take a trip to the moon. Happy agrees to go and is taken to the rocket for the trip. The old man lights the fuse, and Happy is off. Arriving at the moon, he is welcomed by the man in the moon, and immediately taken on a sight seeing tour. He sees the Pretzel Bender's strike and the tallest building in the world.

In this building is a slot where Happy put a nickle and got a large glass of beer, which reaches out and shakes him by the hand. Among the other sights shown to Happy are the Man in the Moon's special dancers.

Happy proceeds to fall in love with the shimmier and when the man in the moon is about to hit him with a stool, Happy wakes up and finds a big policeman hitting him with his club. Happy decides it is better to move on.

LAMPOONS

A series of clever sayings, gibes, jests and jokes slipped from the press of the world, about 12 in all.
